

God's People Gather to Worship Appropriately

Text: Various

Pastor Ryan Kirchoff

June 25, 2023

Main point: The church is called to gather for appropriate worship of God.

Definition of corporate worship:

Corporate worship is the gathered church's appropriate, grace enabled proclamation of and response to God's self-revelation of his character and deeds especially in the person of Jesus Christ that results in God being honored and his people being satisfied in him.

Sermon Outline:

- I. God calls his people to gather for corporate worship
- II. God requires appropriate forms in corporate worship
- III. Closing applications